

- Name of Project : Survey and Revised Design of Roof Structure for Sprinkler System Installation at the Ice Cream Plant Building
- Location : Bangkok
- Client : Unilever Thai Holdings Co. Ltd.
- Project Cost : 15,000,000 Baht
- Duration : February 2010 - March 2010
- Narrative Description : Unilever Thai Holdings Co. Ltd. needs to install sprinkler system for firefighting inside the ice cream plant building to meet the company's safety standard. As the plant has been built for a long time, the inspection of roof structure must required to check the strength of structure to support the construction and installation of firefighting sprinkler system including to modify the additional work of roof structure.
- Services Description : The scope of services are as followings:
- Survey of the existing roof structure.
  - Analysis of the existing roof structure to show it is safe enough to install the sprinkler.
  - Design of the existing roof structure to support the Installation of sprinkler system.
  - Preparation of tender documents and selection of contractor for roof structure work and sprinkler system installation work.