

- Name of Project : Technical Assistant Services and Environment Impact Specialist Services for JICA Survey on Basic Data / Information Collection and Confirmation on Water Resources Management in Northeast Region of Thailand
- Location : Northeast Region of Thailand
- Client : Sunyu Consultants Inc.
- Duration : March 2010 – August 2010
- Narrative Description : Technical Assistant Services and Environment Impact Specialist Services for JICA Survey on Basic Data/Information Collection and Confirmation on Water Resources Management in Northeast Region of Thailand.
- Services Description : The scope of services are as followings:
- Data collection and data analysis of environmental impacts in Northeast area.
 - Collection of statistical data and secondary data within climate change and the impact on natural resources (Wildfires, Plants and Animals).
 - Data Collection on policy interventions and environmental protection of the Thai government (Including laws and regulations, IEE, EIA for infrastructure projects in rural areas).
 - Data collection on movement and development activities in the environmental NGOs in Northeast area.
 - Join the public relations for natural environment analysis and public participation during operation the project.