

- Name of Project : Construction Supervision for Renovation of Roof Structure for Sprinkler System Installation at the Ice Cream Plant Building
- Location : Bangkok
- Client : Unilever Thai Holdings Ltd.
- Project Cost : 15,000,000 Baht
- Duration : August 2010 – March 2011
- Narrative Description : Unilever Thai Holdings Co. Ltd. needs to install sprinkler system for firefighting inside the ice cream plant building to meet the company's safety standard. As the plant has been built for a long time, the inspection of roof structure must required to check the strength of structure to support the construction and installation of firefighting sprinkler system including to modify the additional work of roof structure.
- Services Description : The scope of services are as followings:
- Pre-construction phase services
 - Details for BOQ and construction cost estimate.
 - Selection of construction contractor.
 - Assist in tender document and bidding process.
 - Prepare construction plan and staff planning.
 - During construction phase services
 - Review and approval for shop drawing and as-build drawing.
 - Tesing and approving materials.
 - Conduct site metting , construction management with construction plans.
 - Commissioning test and approving works.